THE FUNKY PIE COMPANY EXTRA HELPINGS

The Funky Pie Company offers include: accredited courses, instrumental teaching, recitals and workshops.

On a Wednesday mornings, we now offer a short recital followed by an interactive workshop. This will begin at 10am, followed by a workshop for up to 10 young people.

A live performance will complete the session which will end at 12 noon.

The workshop will a combination of acoustic, electronic & music technology.

Judy Manning Funky Pie Lead

Judy Manning is a professional viola player having studied at The Royal College of Music and then spent a considerable time working at the BBC.

She works for Hertfordshire Music Service as the Lead Teacher for Special Education Needs as well as freelancing with various London Orchestras and playing in West End shows.

Judy is involved in writing original material for SEN pupils. She delivers to all key stages and also delivers at insets and conferences.

Tim Emler Co-Manager

Tim learned piano and 'cello from an early age, and became a member of various orchestras and choirs at school. Tim has since used and adapted those skills to teach himself guitar, join rock bands and make lots and lots of noise. He is now a Herts Music Service instrumental teacher of the piano, guitar and bass guitar, and is eager to encourage students in a wide range of genres and styles.

Tim has worked in schools, as a Teaching Assistant, and as an SEND tutor and mentor, and has helped many young people gain the skills and confidence to perform at home, at school and in public.

He plays bass in the acclaimed tribute act "The Pistols" and a variety of instruments in several other bands. Tim is always looking for new instruments to "have a go at".

The cost of this experience will be £200 per session.
